Dear Mr. Mugi Wahidin,

It is a pleasure to inform you that your manuscript entitled "Determinants of Human Papilloma Virus (HPV) Vaccination among Elementary Students in Central Jakarta" has completed the peer-review process and has been accepted for publication in Indonesian Journal of Cancer.

Our production coordinator is now making a galley-proof manuscript and will remain in contact with you to oversee any necessary revisions as well as the integration and final publication of your article. The galley proof will be sent to your email as soon as possible for cross-checking purposes. Please do not hesitate to contact us if there are any questions about the publication process from this point forward.

Thank you for your fine contribution. On behalf of the Editors, we look forward to your continued contributions to the Journal.

Sincerely,

Bayu Brahma
Editor-in-Chief
Indonesian Journal of Cancer
